

The Department of Geospatial and Space Technology held a joint meeting between the staff and students.

The theme of the meeting was to sensitize students on the impacts of the geospatial profession / industry on the engineering sector especially, taking cognizance of a developing nation such as our country, Kenya, as it goes through effecting the devolved units of governments in the counties, and the arising development issues therein.