

UNESCO and University of Nairobi water harvesting project team visited Rombo Division, Oloitokitok Sub County, Kajiado County on 28th January to give community members the results of a research carried out on water harvesting.

The team was led by the UNESCO/UNITWIN Chair, University of Nairobi Prof. Judith Mbula Bahemuka who was accompanied by Eng. Prof Ayub Gitau, Chairman, Department of Environmental and Bio systems Engineering, Dr. Robinson Ocharo, Chairman Department of Sociology and Social work, Dr. Birech and Dr. Mike Chepkonga.

Besides giving the feedback on the research the team also listened to the community, administration officials from the National and County governments, Health and Agriculture sectors