

SAFIC paper named New Outstanding Paper of 2014

The SAFIC research team is pleased to announce that a paper authored by its team members Søren and Michael titled “Understanding the rise of African business: In search of business perspectives on African enterprise development” published in African Journal of Economic and Management Studies has been selected by the journal’s editorial team as the Outstanding Paper of 2014.

Click this link for the rest of the story.