

McGill University's Canadian Field Studies in Africa (CFSIA) Group Visits the Department of Geography & Environmental Studies

On Tuesday 14th January 2014, a group of 30 undergraduate students from various universities in Canada made their traditional one-day annual visit to the DoGES as part of the Canadian Field Studies in Africa (CFSIA) which usually takes them through Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania and Zanzibar. The group was headed by Professor Thom Meredith from the Department of Geography and Professor Tim Johns from the School of Dietetics and Human Nutrition at McGill University in Montreal. The group was received by the Chairman, Dr. Samuel O. Owuor, Ms. Parita Shah, Mr. Kivuti Karingi and Dr. Francis Mwaura. Mr. Karingi gave an orientation lecture on the City of Nairobi after which the Canadian students undertook their traditional joint tour of the city together with the UoN students. On Wednesday 16th January 2014, the two groups of students and staff were hosted to a colourful reception at the Canadian High Commission in Nairobi.

UoN students and McGill University-CFSIA group outside Hyslop Building

Mr. Karingi giving an orientation lecture

Professor Thom Meredith

SyproseAchieng (Chair, UNGSS) presenting a gift to CFSIA group

The two group of students leaving for the city tour