

Invitation for Seminar on ICT Innovations in Schools hosted by SCI at Kenya Science Campus

To scale-up ICT Innovations right from schools, the School of Computing and Informatics (SCI) will be hosting a National Seminar on ICT Innovations for Schools. The seminar whose theme is “Embracing Technology and Innovations will be held at Kenya Science Campus from 25-26 June, 2015 starting at 9.00 a.m..

The seminar is planned to be national event that will bring together senior policymakers from Ministries of Education, ICT; senior University Admin; Heads of Schools, ICT Champions, Teachers, startups companies from incubation hubs and Industry.

Some of the scheduled activities during this signature event include policy discussions on ICT implementation, showcasing innovations, and sharing strategies for transforming innovations into products that have social and economic impact! For more details contact Event Coordinator – Dr. Stephen Mburu: smburu@uonbi.ac.ke