

The African Languages Conference - 2014 comes at a time when debate on the underrepresentation of African Languages is raging across the continent. Dr. Maloba Wekesa was invited to be among the Key note speakers in the conference organized by the Amabhubesi Group in conjunction with the University of Pretoria.

The Amabhubesi Training and Conferencing Group is a 100% black empowered, women owned organization that consists of a staff compliment that is from previously disadvantaged communities.