

The veterinary chapter of the University of Nairobi Alumni Association was launched on 1st November 2007. The chief guest was Dr. Jacob Ole Miaron the then Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Livestock and Fisheries Development. An important highlight of the event was the issuance of life membership registration certificates to some participants. Membership recruitment remains a fundamental agenda to the chapter to date.