

Tree planting in CAVS Kabete - Field Sattion

Tree planting activity toward environmental conservation.

One of the core values that drive the University of Nairobi towards the direction of success is respect for and conservation of the environment. In upholding and demonstrating leadership in environmental conservation, students and staff members from CAVS participated.