

RETIREMENT OF MR JAMES M. GITAHI

The Chairman Department of Clinical Studies Prof. J.D Mande (left) presenting a gift to Mr and Mrs James M. Gitahi.

Mr James M. Gitahi joined the Department of Clinical Studies of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in February 1980 as a Technologist.

In 1987 he was promoted to Senior Technologist in Haematology Laboratory where he has been involved in Research/ Diagnosis in the Laboratory and assisting in undergraduate student's practical's.

In 2001 he was appointed to teach practical's in clinical chemistry for B.Sc in Biomedical Laboratory Technology.

On 2003 he was Appointed Acting Chief technologist.

From 2004 till 2014 he has been the Chief Technologist in the Department of Clinical Studies.

He retired after 34 years of continuous service to the Department and the University at large.

We wish him all the best in his future endeavours.

