

Congratulations Prof. Nancy Karanja on your appointment as a member of the Consultative Research Committee on Development Research, a programme committee under the Danish Council for strategic research which advises the Minister for Development Cooperation regarding research applications under the competitive funds.

This is yet another milestone in research which we believe will promote our research initiatives in the Department and the University of Nairobi at Large.