

School of Pharmacy career day

The School of Pharmacy held its annual career day which was organized by NUPSA on the 17th of April 2015. It was aimed for students to discuss career opportunities in the pharmaceutical sector with professional already in the field and enable the interaction between the senior professionals and students with aim of mentoring them.

The chief guest was Dr. Paul Mwaniki president of the Pharmaceutical Society of Kenya. Other guests in attendance included; Dr. Mary Kisingu chief pharmacist at the Nairobi hospital, Dr. Louis Machogu, Managing Director of Haltons Pharmacy, Dr. Timothy Panga chief officer of health Laikipia county, Dr. Dominic kariuki drug registration department PPB, Dr. Ndinda Kusu, Deputy project director, MSH, Dr. John Munyu, CEO KEMSA, Dr. William Mwatu, Chairman Kenya association of Pharmaceutical Industries (KAPI) and finally we had our dean , School of Pharmacy Prof. Anastasia N. Guantai.