

Visit by Bunyore Girls High School

The School of Economics thanks the team of students and teachers of Bunyore Girls High School for choosing to visit our School on 11th May 2015. We were delighted to interact with the students and teachers and to share information on Economics programs at the University of Nairobi.