

Students taking the Master of Arts in International Conflict Management (ICM) have planned for a tour of Pokot, Turkana and North-East Uganda from August 5-9, 2013. The aim of the tour is to study causes of conflicts over resources in these areas and efforts that have been put in place by various stakeholders to solve these long-running conflicts.