

Enhancing links with Royal Holloway University of London

The Chairman, Department of Geography and Environmental Studies, Dr. Sam Owuor, visited the Department of Geography, Royal Holloway University of London (RHUL) between 15th and 19th September, 2014. The visit was part of the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) South-East Doctoral Training (SE-DTC) International Partnership arrangement between Geography at RHUL and Geography at UoN. Dr. Owuor had the opportunity to meet Geography staff and PhD students of RHUL, as well as discussing future collaborations between the two departments. Dr. Owuor also presented a paper during a day-long workshop on “Social and Environmental Justice in African Cities”. Staff and students from the four institutions which make up the DTC attended the workshop: Royal Holloway, the University of Reading, the University of Surrey and the University of Kent. The visit and workshop was meticulously organized by Prof. Willis Katie, Professor of Human Geography and Director of the Politics, Development and Sustainability Group.
