

BIOINFORMATICS IN THE TROPICS WORKSHOP

UGANDA VIRUS RESEARCH INSTITUTE - ENTEBBE

CEBIB bioinformatics lecturer Dr. Benard Kulohoma and bioinformatics student

Kelvin Muteru participated in this year's Bioinformatics in the Tropics workshop held at Uganda Virus Research Institute in Entebbe, Uganda from 6th to 9th July.

The workshop was part of the south-to-south capacity building programme for bioinformaticians in Africa, aimed at building capacity for dealing with next generation sequencing (NGS) data.
