

One month after treatment with hycanthono methanesulphonate, over 90% of patients were negative for Schistosoma haematobium, compared with 81% of those treated with niridazole