

WORLD TRADE ORGANISATION (WTO) DIRECTOR GENERAL VISITS THE UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

Date and time:

Wed, 2013-05-22 16:24

The WTO Director General visited the University of Nairobi on Wednesday the 22nd of May 2013 gave a talk on Africa the Growth Continent. The director General emphasized education as the only means that will make Africa's current growth sustainable. The speech is available at click

The School of Economics at the University of Nairobi is one of the 14 Universities in the world that are holders of the WTO Chair. The chair supports research, outreach and capacity building on Multilateral Trading Systems.