Mon, 2013-05-20 16:04

Over 200 bachelors and about 80 postgraduate students joined the School in May 2013 for the 2013/2014 academic year under the self sponsored (Module II) programme. About 300 bachelors students under the JAB (Module I) programme reported to the the School on 20th May 2013 for the 2013/2014 academic year

In her welcome remarks, the director urged the students to work hard and to remain focused on their academic goals. She further noted that the students had made the right choice in selecting courses in Economics as the country needed economists more than ever before for the implementation of the new constitution.
