

Prof. Peter Wasamba, the Coordinator of the Korean Studies programme receives the signed MoU between the University of Nairobi and Korea University from Prof. Sung-Jin Kang, Vice President, Office of International Affairs Korea University. The ceremony took place at Korea University in Seoul on 23rd April 2013. The

MoU will promote exchange of students and staff from the two universities, lend support to Korean studies at the University of Nairobi and promote joint research activities

The exchange of the MoU between the University of Nairobi and Korea University was witnessed by Prof. D. H Kiiru, Research Director, Korean Studies Networking Project, Mr. Walter Foreman, Manager, Communications & Protocol Office of International Affairs Korea University and Ms. J.J. Park, Exchange and Study Abroad Programmes for Africa and Europe.

1. Diana Rop, an alumna of the University of Nairobi visits Prof. Kiiru in Seoul. Miss Rop, joined Kyungpook University in Daegu, Korea in February 2013. She is pursuing MA in Korean Studies. Before joining Kyungpook University, she worked as a project assistant in the Korean Studies Networking Project.