Greenhorn Mentorship is a program meant to create future globally competitive leaders who span the public, private and the non-governmental sectors by pairing young dynamic minds with the best industry practitioners who have shown exemplary achievements in their respective career paths.

In this regard, we will be holding a personal development contact talk on 20th February starting at 10:00 am in NTB IV.

The Personal Development Talk aims at equipping students with the relevant knowledge and guidance to enable them shape nearly every facet of their lives.

Our guest speakers will include:

- Polly Mwangi- Associate Human Resources Director, Ernst & Young
- Daniel Onyiego-Head of compensation, Nestle, Equatorial African Region
- Stephen Mokaya- Head of recruitment, Nestle, Equatorial African Region
- David Gray Kimaro- Immediate past president, Toastmasters Club & Entrepreneur
