

TEAM BUILDING AND MENTORSHIP RETREAT

Saturday, 9th Nov 2013 was a day full of pomp and glamour as 70 students across all specializations in the school of business spent the day out with the Alumni at Oloolua Reserve located at Karen-Ngong, a spectacular site of its own õswagaö; courtesy of The Accounting Students Association (ASA).

The event was organized by the Alumni and External Affiliation committee headed by luminary Grace Rehema with the main objective of creating a platform for the interaction between students and Alumni already making great strides out there in the corporate side of the world.

It also focused on building effective teams for best practices. This is a simulation of team building activities carried out by the corporates to enhance team work, co-operation, good working relationships and synergy towards achievement of common goals.

ASA extends sincere gratitude to the administration-School of Business and the entire SOB student fraternity for their unfailing support.
