On Thursday 17th 2013, the Accounting Students association (ASA) sent delegates of about 50 students to attend the 1st Annual Young Professional Accountants Intersivity Forum (2013) at KCA University, courtesy of ICPAK. The forum ended on Friday 18th October 2013 with the ASA chairman Joe Nyaga expected to make a presentation on behalf of the University of Nairobi.

The forum zeroed in on the role of accountants and universities in the achievement of vision 2030, the place of SACCOs in the economy amongst other key issues in the accountancy profession.

We express our gratitude to the School of Business administration for allowing us to be good ambassadors of this great institution and for all the support accorded to ASA and all other student associations to enhance production of all-rounded business executives.
