

President launches Digital Talent Programme

100 interns have joined the just launched Digital Talent Programme that will steer government service delivery through use of Information Communication and Technology, ICT.

The President of the Republic of Kenya launched the Digital Talent Programme at the University of Nairobi on February 10, 2015.