

UoN students and staff to undertake free online courses

The University of Nairobi (UoN) is sponsoring its staff members and students to undertake free online courses at the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI Program) in USA.

Those interested will have to visit CITI Program's website (<https://www.citiprogram.org>) and complete the registration process before undertaking the courses.

Courses to be undertaken include; Human Subjects Research, Good Clinical Practice, and Responsible Conduct of Research.

The courses are fully sponsored by UoN, through the Partnership for Innovate Medical Education in Kenya (PRIME-K) project.
