

News News News

Date and time:
Fri, 2013-03-01 11:20

Location / Venue:

Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies

FROM: THOUGHT AND PRACTICE: A Journal of the Philosophical Association of Kenya Thought & Practice is an online biannual publication of the Philosophical Association of Kenya, hosted by African Journals Online-AJOL. Vision A forum for incisive philosophic reflection on intellectual, social and political issues within the African context. Mission Thought and Practice serves scholars with broad interests in the humanities and social sciences by disseminating original articles with a philosophical outlook, with emphasis on intellectual, social and political issues that are of special relevance to contemporary Africa. For more details, Visit us at <http://www.ajol.info/index.php/tp/index>

FROM: CENTRE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND PEACE (CHRP)

1. The Centre held in December last year two very successful Guest lectures: (i) "Human Rights and Business," by Professor Baard A. Andreassen of the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights, University of Oslo, Norway (ii) "Human Rights in the Age of Terrorism," by Dr. William F. Schulz, President and CEO, Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
2. The report of the Symposium on "Poverty as a Human Rights violation?" held at the Lake Naivasha Country Club, September 28- 30th is now out. For a hard copy, please contact the Department

FROM: UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY (UNPS) UNPS held a successful one-day highly informative debate on the "The Kenyan Political Culture Forum" in January 15th at the CCU boardroom. A copy of its report is available for download at our Downloads section/or ask the Secretary, Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies.
Message from HOD

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. Stephen Omondi Owino defended his PhD thesis "Wittgenstein's Theory of Semiotic Systems and its Applications" before the Board of examiners meeting held on 1st March, 2013. The following candidates will defend their PhD proposals Thursday 11th April, 2013:

1. Mr. Fernand Manjewa M'Bwangi "The contribution of Waghosi (Elders)to the Catholic Church as a family of God through inculturation in Taita-Taveta"

2. Mr. Rop Naaman, "An investigation of traditional Kipsigis socio-religio-cultural items for better understanding of the Catholic doctrine of salvation and being saved: An inculturation approach