The International Francophony week (16th-24th March) was marked in style at The University of Nairobi. On Saturday 23rd March, we held our French day at The CCU Hall as from 10am to 2pm. The event was graced by The Linguistic attaché of the French Embassy, Dr. Claude Frey, his assistant, Ms Nassima Benrabia and lecturers from the Sub Department of French: Dr Bilha Mwenesi and Dr. Caroline Oyugi. Also, in attendance were students from other institutions of Higher Learning namely; Strathmore University, USIU, The Technical University of Kenya and Ecole Militaire. Other guests were from Kenya French Speakers Association and Union Inter-Universitaire.

The students then proceeded to Lycée Denis Diderot where there was showcasing of African art and cuisine from different parts of the world.

On Sunday 24th, students participated in the Journée Sportive at Windsor Golf and Country Club. This was the culmination of the Francophony week 2013.
