

masters orientation

The School of Economics held a successful orientation for the Masters students on 26/8/2015. The students included; MA–Economics, MA Economics Policy and Management & MSC. Health Economics Nairobi Campus.

At the orientation, it was emphasized the need to have quality work and adherence to academic rules and regulations.

There was interaction with students asking relevant questions that were answered by the present School Staff.

In attendance was Director, Associate Director the M.A & MSC. coordinators (Dr. Mugo and Dr. Kioko) among others.