

UoN, UNES sign Performance Contracts with Government

The University of Nairobi and the University of Nairobi Enterprise and Services Limited (UNES) have signed Performance Contract documents with the Government.

The signing of Performance Contracts for universities, university colleges and state corporations under the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology was presided over the Cabinet Secretary, Prof. Jacob Kaimenyi at the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development on October 12, 2015. Prof. Kaimenyi asked the institutions to prioritize resource allocations to important projects.

The Council Chair, Dr. Idle Farah signed the Performance Contract on behalf of the University of Nairobi and UNES Board. Dr. Farah was accompanied by Prof. Henry Mutoro, Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Academic Affairs, Managing Director, UNES, Mr. John Kenduiwo and the Performance Contract team led by Mr. Leonard Musyoka.
