The Open Day was officially opened on October 22, 2015, by Prof. Peter KœObonyo, the Deputy Principal, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, on behalf of the Vice Chancellor of the University of Nairobi.

In his speech, Prof. KØObonyo lauded the Campus for holding the Open Day to publicise the existence, and programmes, of the University of Nairobi in the region. He promised that more programmes would be introduced depending on demand, especially once the University of Nairobi building is completed.

The occasion was also graced by Prof. Julius Ogeng'oo, the Director of the Centre for Self-Sponsored Programmes (CESSP), Prof. H. Ochanda, Deputy Principal, College of Education and External Studies, Mr. Jeckonia Odumbe of the Centre for Open and Distance Learning and senior staff from the various schools and faculties of the University of Nairobi. Two high schools, Moi Girls Kamusinga and Vihiga Boys attended the Open Day. The latter school provided scintillating entertainment for the guests.
