

Pope Francis to celebrate Holy Mass at UoN

His Holiness Pope Francis

His Holiness Pope Francis will celebrate Holy Mass at the University of Nairobi (UoN) grounds on Thursday, November 26, 2015 from 10.00 am.

The construction of the Papal Altar at the UoN grounds is almost complete. Over 1 million Catholic faithfuls are expected to attend the Mass that will be presided over by the Pope.

The Pope will be in the country from November 25th to 27th, 2015. Pope Francis is scheduled to make a historic visit to Africa and Kenya will be the first African country to host His Holiness since he became Pope in 2013.

His Holiness Pope Francis will arrive in the country on Wednesday November 25, 2015 and pay a courtesy call and hold talks with the President of the Republic of Kenya.

The three-day papal visit is a milestone and a blessing for Kenya, having had the privilege of hosting a Pope on three previous occasions. Pope John Paul II visited Kenya in 1980, 1985 and 1995.

Visit the main website for more on the Pope's visit: (<http://www.popeinkenya.or.ke>)

Send a welcome message to the Pope: (<http://popeinkenya.or.ke/?q=welcome-note>)

Send your comments on Key Issues that pope will tackle:
(<http://www.popeinkenya.or.ke/?q=key-issues>)