

Papal Mass Registration

All members of staff who would wish to attend the Papal Mass on November 26, 2015, at the University grounds and may not have registered with their respective parishes are now invited to register at their respective Colleges. The place to register is the Office of Assistant Dean of Students for College staff while those in Central Administration should register at the Office of Dean of students.

This registration will be closed on Wednesday, November 11, 2015 at 10.00a.m. and names forwarded to the chaplaincy.
