

School of Journalism Students Elect Leaders

Date and time:

Wed, 2015-11-04 15:12

Nairobi University School of Journalism Association (NUJOSA) students voted for new leaders in a peaceful election.

The elections held on Tuesday, 27th October, 2015, was well organized following peaceful campaigns and repeated appeals from leaders urging the students to accept the outcome of the elections.

The elected leaders vowed to improve on efficiency, accountability and devotion in their service to the school of journalism students.

The elected NUJOSA leaders include: Chairman-Phanuel Waita Muoka, Vice Chairperson-Esy Mbaabu, Secretary-General,-Timothy Nyandusi, Publicity Secretary-Sebastian Mbindyo Musyoka, organizing Secretary, Patrick Wesonga, Finance Secretary-Faith Nthenya Sports Representative-Munyao, Assistant Organizing Secretary-Dickens and Assistant Secretary General - Charles Omondi.

The newly elected NUJOSA elected leaders will serve in the 2015-2016 academic year.