

Mboya Otieno wins cash prize

Date and time:

Wed, 2015-11-18 14:23

Mboya Otieno Geoffrey

Mboya Otieno Geoffrey a fourth year student of BSc Pure Mathematics won the prize money of Ksh 2000 after successfully solving a maths problem posted on the School of Mathematics notice board. The question dubbed "An open problem" was posted by Dr. Chumba Isaac Kipchirchir.

Mboya joined the School in 2012 and his passion for mathematics mathematics was ignited. His love for mathematics has led him to be an official of Mathematics Association of Nairobi University (MANU) a position which he uses to encourage high school and university students the importance and application of Mathematics to real life problems.

Mboya (center) receiving cash prize from Mr Ochola looking on is Prof Ottieno in (white cap) , Dr Kipchirchir and Momanyi (right)

