

CIUON Choir attended the opening ceremony of AVIC International Holdings

Date and time:

Sat, 2015-11-07 09:20

CIUON Choir attended the opening ceremony of AVIC International Holdings

On December 7th, the AVIC SHACMAN held a grand open ceremony. With the elaborately preparation, the CIUON choir sing the song JAMBO and Good days to open the ceremony. The enthusiastic Chinese song and the special chorus without accompany took the audience back to China. The people who attend the opening ceremony are: Counsellor Guo Ce of the Chinese embassy in Kenya, the Chairman Wang Guangjun of the AVIC in Beijing, the vice-director Dr.Meshackopwora of the department of technology in Kenya Science of Education and other important officers. Counsellor Guo Ce go back through the good relationship of China and Kenya, he also praised the result the AVIC SHACMAN has gained and wished it would have more progress and contribution in the future to benefit the people of China and Kenya. The chairman Wang Guangjun introduced the mechanical products, the construction equipment and other business of the AVIC SHACMAN. They said that they will focus on the future and promise that they will create the conditions for the local production and service to contribute to the development of Kenya, and also it will contribute more of the Chinese brand to produce more value for Kenya. Dr. Meshackopwora welcomed the idea of the AVIC and wish this can produce the deeper development of two country. After the grand authorization and ribbon cutting ceremony, the opening ceremony come to the end with the singing of Taomagan .At the foundation of the Chinese heat, Confucius Institutes in Kenya are taking methods which are more positive to service the Chinese companies in Kenya, finding the new joint point of the culture between China and Kenya. And contribute its strength to promote the Chinese and the friendship between China and Kenya.