

LOS ANGELES CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY PARTNERS WITH VET. PATHOLOGY DEPARTMENT.

This was a visit to the Department on 16/11/2015 by Dr. Gael Lamielle; Dr Tamerin Scott who are students from Los Angeles California University. They were led by Prof. Malika Kachani from the same University. They visited the Department and were interested to form a working partnership especially the parasitology section. They were welcomed by Dr Gitao who was the acting chairman, Vet pathology and Microbiology. They met members of the Parasitology section and had joint discussions with Dr. Gathura who led them to the department.
