The management of cerebral malaria in a provincial general hospital in Kenya

Kwasa, TO; Ogada, SW

http://hinari-gw.who.int/whalem00www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/whalem000/pubmed/2261869
http://erepository.uonbi.ac.ke:8080/xmlui/handle/123456789/29853
Date: 1990-08

Abstract:

The practice of physicians at the Nakuru Provincial General Hospital (NPGH), Kenya, when dealing with cerebral malaria is reviewed over a 4-month period. The definition, management, and outcome of patients labelled to have cerebral malaria is presented and criticism of their practice offered in a manner applicable to other rural hospitals in Kenya.